

Second Mediterranean Meeting of CIVVIH –
Corfu 18-19 April 2008

MODERN ARCHITECTURE IN WORLD HERITAGE CITIES

Ray Bondin

*Director of Office of Planning Valletta,
President of CIVVIH*

Email: ray.bondin@gov.mt

World Heritage cities are facing big challenges but certainly the most difficult relate to the request for contemporary architecture. Cities are facing enormous pressures for more buildings and changes to existing buildings. The 'historic city' as we know it is changing rapidly. The Vienna Memorandum has not solved anything. Where do we go from here?