GENERAL INFORMATION

The official working meeting and the scientific symposium will be held on 13th and 14th of April, 2018.

The Organizer has suggested as arrival day the 12th April.

The participants are free to depart on 15th April but also they have the option to depart on 17th April. The Organizer will organize a two-day fieldtrip (for details please look at the program below).

The fieldtrip will visit two sites:

- Cuandixia Village, Beijing (Chinese Historic & Cultural Village)
- West Qing Tombs (World Cultural Heritage)

The meeting is open to all CIVVIH members and ICOMOS members.

No registration fee is required.

Scientific symposium will be free to all participants. Participants need to pay their own accommodations and meals during the meeting.

A two-day academic field tour will be organized after the symposium around Beijing. For the limited capacity of transportation (60 seats), CIVVIH Asia-Pacific members and CIVVIH general members will have the priorities. Remaining vacancies will be open to other participants based on registration sequence.

Free transportation and meals for the tour will be provided to CIVVIH members. All participants pay their accommodations during the trip.

We will assist to book accommodations for participants.
