

Martin Horáček, ICOMOS Czechia
Conservation Area or Integrated Development?
The Cases of Český Krumlov and Třebíč

Czechia

Historic Centre of Český Krumlov, WH since 1992

Třebíč, Jewish Quarter and St. Procopius Basilica, WH since 2003

Český
Krumlov, End of XIXth C, 1973,
1986

Třebíč – Turn of the XXth C, Synagogue
in 1990 and 2018

Český Krumlov –
2 000 000 visitors per year

Třebíč – 100 000 visitors
per year

What is more authentic in 2018 in the World Heritage Site Český Krumlov? Tourism, historical performance, canoeists?

“Integrated development” within a local/global scale?
Protected area with a small number of inhabitants and many tourists vs. unprotected area with a plenty of inhabitants and minimum attractivity for visitors

Thank you for your attention.