

ICOMOS/CIVVIH
Scientific Symposium
“Historic Cities – Harbours of Mediterranean
and their urban operation in the 20th century”
(Patras, Greece, 10-11 March 2006)

Vladimir Krogius (ICOMOS/Russia)

CITY OF TAGANROG
AS THE RUSSIAN FARTHEST
MEDITERRANEAN HARBOUR

The whole Mediterranean

The Northeastern Mediterranean

The Black Sea's Mediterranean

The Azov Sea's Mediterranean

The sea routs from Taganrog:

To Kerch (Panticapeum) the Bosphorus Cimmer	240 km
To Istanbul (Konstatinopol) the Bosphorus Thracus	1080 km
To Piraeos , just near Athens	1850 km
To Gibraltar , the western end of the Mediterranean world	3380 km

The Federal Program of Russian historic cities and towns revival. Map of historic cities and towns of Russia

RUSSIAN MEDITERRANEAN

TAGANROG AND SURROUNDING

TAGANROG – THE VIEW FROM SPACE

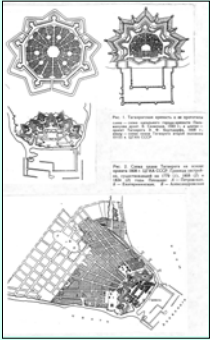

TAGANROG – CITY'S MAP

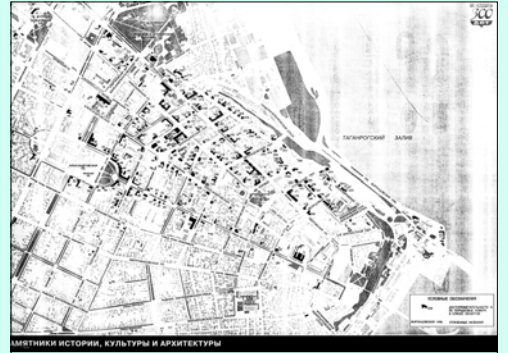

TAGANROG – THE CITY'S CENTRE

TAGANROG OLD PLANS

TAGANROG – MONUMENTS of history, culture and architecture

TAGANROG – THE MONUMENT OF PETER I

TAGANROG – THE
STONE STAIRCASE TO SEA

TAGANROG – THE TYPICAL PUBLIC BUILDING

TAGANROG – THE TYPICAL PRIVATE HOUSE

TAGANROG – THE PALACE OF ALFERAKI

TAGANROG – THE PICTURE GALLERY

TAGANROG – THE HOUSE, WHERE ANTON CHEKHOV HAS BEEN BORN

MANY THANKS FOR YOUR KIND ATTENTION