

Dear CIVVIH Colleague,

The Scientific Symposium of CIVVIH Asia-Pacific Sub-committee will be held from November 14th to November 16th, 2019 in Beijing, China.

The theme of the Symposium is Conservation and Renewal of Historic Urban Areas - Approaches to Sustainable Management for Historic Urban Landscape.

There will be five sessions to discuss the preservation of historic urban areas in terms of theoretical research of Historic Urban Landscape (HUL), and methods as well as practice of the sustainable management of HUL on a global scale. The general conference schedule is as following (detailed schedule can be found in the attached Symposium Introduction):

Nov. 13th: arrival in Beijing;

Nov. 14th to 16th: Symposium in Beijing and an optional field trip around Beijing;

Nov. 17th: Participants departure.

Considering your outstanding position and achievements in the preservation of historic towns and villages in the Asian-Pacific region, we sincerely invite you to the Symposium. If your recent research is relevant to the theme of the Symposium and is beneficial for the Asian-Pacific region which we believe will contribute a great deal to our Symposium and Sub-committee, you are very welcome to sign up for presentation by filling your (potential) presentation title on the registration form which is attached to the notification email.

If you are interested in attending and can confirm your attendance, please send back the registration form (please include a potential topic if you would like to bring a presentation) as well as the scan of the personal information page on your passport to heritagecenter@thupdi.com before August 15th, 2019. Thank you for your support and cooperation!

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ms. WEI Ran, heritagecenter@thupdi.com

Kind regards,
